BY-LAWS.

SECTION 1. Any person, being a resident of the City of Hudson or its vicinity, if approved by the Executive Committee, may become a regular member of the Association, and at the time of his admission shall subscribe an obligation to abide by the By-Laws and Regulations of said Association.

§ 2. Any person hereafter admitted to membership of this Association shall pay four dollars on admission, and four dollars, payable semi-annually, in each, year succeeding his admission, as and for annual dues.

§ 3. Any person, if approved by the Executive Committee, may become a Life Member of this Association by paying the Treasurer thereof the sum of Forty Dollars.

§ 4. Life Members shall be entitled to all the privileges of regular members.

§ 5. Any member wishing to withdraw from the Association must inform the Treasurer of it, who shall duly register his resignation, provided his dues and fines are cancelled, else he will be considered as continuing his membership and charged accordingly. Any member removing from the city shall be considered as resigning.

§ 6. No member shall be expelled unless charges are preferred against him by a member in writing at a regular meeting of the Association, which charges shall be read in public meeting, and then only at a subsequent meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; the accused having had one week's notice previous of such meeting, and an opportunity given him to answer such charges.

§ 7. The officers of this Association shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, and three Directors, (which officers shall constitute the Executive Committee,) with such other officers as shall be from time to time required.

§ 8. The President shall preside at the meetings of said Association and of the Executive Committee; and in case of an equal division of the members on any question, give the casting vote. He shall appoint all committees.

§ 9. The President may call a meeting of the Association or of the Executive Committee for the transaction of special business, and shall call a special meeting of the Association or Executive Committee when requested so to do by any three members of said Committee, or any fifteen members of the Association.

§ 10. The Vice-President shall preside in case of the death or absence of the President, and perform all the duties of that office. And in case of the death or absence of both President and Vice-President, then some person appointed by the Executive Committee shall perform the duties of the office for the time being.

§ 11. The Recording Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings and transactions of the Association and Executive Committee, and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him from time to time by the Executive Committee.

§ 12. The Corresponding Secretary shall, under the direction of the Executive Committee, receive and answer all communications addressed to the Association, or any of its officers, and perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to him by the Executive Committee.

§ 13. The Treasurer shall receive all sums due the Association, and all donations in money made for its benefit. He shall not pay out any funds, unless by direction of the Executive Committee. All bills before being paid must be audited by the said Committee. He shall keep a regular account of the financial condition of the Association, and report the same to the Executive Committee as often as shall be required; and shall present at the annual meeting of the Association a report in detail of all the receipts and disbursements for the preceding year. He shall prepare and take charge of the tickets of admission to lectures; and he shall give satisfactory security to the Association for the faithful discharge of his trusts.

§ 14. A Librarian, to be appointed by the Executive Committee, shall attend at the rooms of the Association when required to do so by said Committee. He shall take charge of the rooms, of the Library and other property belonging to the Association. He shall keep a register of all books, maps, charts, and other property belonging to the Association, (with the names of the donors, in cases where the books or articles have been presented,) arrange them in proper order, and perform such other services as may be required of him from time to time by the Executive Committee.

§ 15. The Annual Meeting of the Association, for the election of Officers, shall be on the last Tuesday of March, at 7 o'clock P. M.

§ 16. All Officers shall be elected by ballot. The President, Vice-President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer shall be voted for by separate ballot, and the Directors by a general ticket.

§ 17. The Executive Committee shall meet as often as the business of the Association shall require, and at the annual meeting report its proceedings for the past year, and the state of the Association.

§ 18. The Executive Committee shall provide a course of lectures, at such times and consisting of such number as in their judgment may be deemed advisable.

§ 19. None of the property or effects of this Association, furniture or moveables, except as herein provided as to Books in the Library, shall be loaned, or allowed to be taken from the rooms of the Association, unless by the consent of the Executive Committee.

§ 20. No officer or member of the Executive Committee shall contract any debt on behalf of the Association, or in any manner or to any extent render the Association liable for the payment of any sum, unless the same shall first have been directed by the Executive Committee; and the Executive Committee shall not audit any bill so contracted.

§ 21. If any member of the Association, or other person admitted to the lectures or rooms of the Association, shall cause any disturbance or annoyance at such lectures, or in or about such rooms, or shall wilfully destroy any books, papers, periodicals, or other property of the Association, it shall be the duty of every member or officer of the Association having a knowledge thereof, to report the name of the person so offending to the Executive Committee. And the person so offending, if a member, may be suspended or expelled by the Executive Committee from the privileges of membership; or, if not a member, may be debarred from the privileges of the Association, and from admission to its rooms.

§ 22. The Executive Committee shall fill all vacancies occurring in any of the offices of the Society.

§ 23. Books may be drawn from the Library under such rules and regulations as the Executive Committee from time to time shall adopt.

Library Regulations.

§ 1. The Library shall be open for the receiving and delivering of books every Saturday, from to 2 to 5 P. M., and from 6 to 10 P. M.

§ 2 Each member who is not in arrears for dues, shall be entitled to draw from the Library not to exceed two volumes at any one time, which shall be returned or renewed in two weeks from delivery or renewal. No member shall be allowed to take any book from the Library, while he has in his possession any books belonging to it. No book or books shall be renewed for more than once.

§ 3. Any member who shall detain a book longer than the time above mentioned, shall forfeit and pay for such detention ten cents per week, for every volume detained. Any person who shall deface or injure any book, shall on its return, pay to the Librarian the damages assessed thereon by him. Any person who shall be in default in returning any book, shall pay the value thereof; or if one of a set, the value of such set.

§ 4. No person shall be permitted to take any book from the Library, while any penalties or fines, imposed upon him by these regulations, shall remain unpaid.

§ 5. No member shall be permitted to take from the rooms any book or books without the knowledge and consent of the Librarian.

§ 6. The Librarian shall keep a list of all books that may be taken from the Library, the names of the persons taking the same, and the time when taken. And he shall report to the Library Committee of the Executive Committee all delinquencies or abuses that may occur under any of the foregoing rules and regulations.

§ 7. No book must be lent out of the member's household.

§ 8. All books must be returned at such time as the Executive Committee may order, under the penalty of one dollar.

§ 9. The Librarian shall have no power to waive any of the above rules and regulations.

§ 10. A violation of the preceding rules and regulations will render a member liable to suspension or expulsion by the Executive Committee.
